

Miriam Staley

awards-ceremony moderator, TV personality, dynamic speaker, event-host

As a seasoned TV and event host, Miriam's approach to life, her dynamic stage presence and professional speaking talents take her far beyond traditional event moderation and presentation.

As one of five finalists on 'The Apprentice,' she infected many people with her personal desire to help them be better than they thought they could ever be. Miriam's charm and power of influence lie in identifying and nurturing the potential that people have yet to discover and working with them to make it a reality. She enables this both with individual leaders, as well as with entire event audiences, captivating and inspiring them to engage. Ultimately, it is her perspective on effective communication and exceeding expectations that adds true value to any event, including for some of the largest and most innovative companies in the world. Her star-studded performances include hosting a live-fundraising charity awards show for Global Angels, a business showcase for the Birmingham Chamber of Commerce, and the annual conference for the Builders Merchants Federation.

Equally supporting her event moderator, compere and keynote speaker skills, is her role as CEO at the Thought Expansion Network where she works closely with content producers, event planners and speakers to develop compelling content that transforms conferences into completely remarkable experiences.
